

Whittington Village Profile - 2018

The village and civil parish of Whittington lies approximately 4.8 miles east of Oswestry alongside the B5009 road and the junction with A495 Ellesmere Road. Whittington is the main village in the Parish alongside the smaller villages of Park Hall, Hindford Babbinswood.

The village grew up around Whittington Castle, which is thought to have been built around 1221. The ruins of the castle are now restored and open to the public as a historic and scenic tourist attraction. The castle is owned and managed by the community and hosts events including weddings, educational visits and parties.

Part of the Whittington parish includes Park Hall. This was previously an army training camp, but now is residential and farming land.

There is a small amount of light industry based mainly on the Whittington Business Park on the road to Oswestry. A further group of businesses operate from premises off North Drive, Park Hall. Industry and warehousing is also located at the edge of the parish, close to the main A5 road. The village has a range of shops including a convenience store, two pubs, takeaway, community centre and a Church.
